

Multiple Placements- Impact on Children

Presented by:
Families for Kids

In coordination with Pierce College, Foster Parent Education

Workshop Objectives:

- ❖ Help caregivers understand Attachment Theory and how multiple placements can impact a child's ability to attach.
- ❖ Assist caregivers in learning skills and creating an environment that will help a child feel safe and secure.
- ❖ Teach participants about the stages of grief and loss and how children and caregivers experience these emotions in a variety of ways.
- ❖ Discuss the impact of grief and loss on early brain development.

This workshop was created by Dinah Martin who has been teaching in the Social Service/Mental Health program at Pierce College since the 1990's. Dinah has worked at the headquarters office of the DSHS Children's Administration and has as a social worker, trainer, community resource manager, and state office manager for over 20 years. Dinah has been a foster parent, a teacher, and a consultant. Currently, she works to support social work staff in improving practice. Dinah has a BA in Education and an MS in Human Resource Management and Development.
