

Working with Developmentally Disabled Children

Presented by:
Families for Kids

In coordination with Pierce College, Foster Parent Education

Workshop Objectives:

- ❖ Provide caregivers with initial assessment skills and suggestions for accommodation techniques when working with children with disabilities
- ❖ Fostering a child with special needs requires knowledge and skills related to the child's specific disability
- ❖ Address the unique needs of these children and concrete suggestions for how to best meet their needs.

This workshop was created by Linda Gil. Linda works for the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS). She has worked in the Aging and Disability Services Administration, Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD) for over eight years. Presently, she coordinates training programs in DDD for case managers, social workers and providers. She has undergraduate degrees in Child Development and Family Studies and holds a Masters Degree in Early Childhood Special Education from the University of Washington.
