

Care-Giving for Children w/Extreme Behavioral Issues

Presented by:
Families for Kids

In coordination with Pierce College, Foster Parent Education

Workshop Objectives:

- ❖ Strategies for working with children with extreme behavioral and/or mental health issues
- ❖ Sexually aggressive youth, suicide, runaway issues, crisis intervention, de-escalation, discipline, and environmental management
- ❖ Participants will learn how to access DSHS hotlines and other assistance in crisis and emergency situations.

This workshop was created by Sharon Young. Sharon is a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist with a private practice located in Puyallup Washington. She works for a child-placement agency located in Region 5 that serves foster children from Regions 3, 4 & 5. She has prior experience working for DCFS in their headquarters office in Olympia and over 20 years of experience providing clinical services in a variety of settings. In her early years as a therapist, she worked exclusively with foster children who had been sexually abused. She recently graduated from school in June of 2004 with a Masters in Theological Studies. In addition to her Masters in Theological Studies, she also has a Masters in Counseling Psychology and a Bachelor's in Psychology.
