

GANGS!!

GANGS!!

GANGS!!

Presented by: Gabe Morales

Gabe brings 25 years of experience in training and working specifically with many different gangs in our country. He also has a background in working in various correctional facilities in Washington and in California. He is a local as well as a national trainer on gang violence throughout the United States. Gabe is the author of "Varrio Warfare: Violence in the Latino Community."

This workshop will provide you with basic GANG information and working with at-risk-youth who have the potential to be involved with gangs. The major goals of the workshop are:

- Learn Gang basics in laymen's terms
- What and who are the Gangs in your community
- What to look for in youth who are participating in Gangs
- What are Gang words (slang) & interpretation
- Plus much more on how to work with your youth who maybe Gang involved.

Please join us for this informative training/workshop

Seattle

Friday, September 28, 2007

9:30 am – 4:30 pm

Kent DCFS, 1313 W. Meeker (Tahoma Room)

Kent, Washington 98032

To register, please complete the form below, detach & mail to:

Yolonda Marzest, MSW, Program Mgr., Region 4

DSHS – Resource Family Training Institute

4045 Delridge Way SW, Suite 201 (MS: N56-1)

Seattle, WA 98106

Or e-mail at mayo300@dshs.wa.gov

Note No Child Care Available – Please do not bring children to this workshop.

=====

REGISTRATION FORM

I will attend "GANGS" training workshop on:

[] Friday, September 28, 2007, Kent DCFS, 1313 W. Meeker, Kent, WA 98032

Name: _____

Address: _____ City: _____

Zip: _____ Phone+area code: _____ e-mail: _____

Please check the appropriate box [] Foster/Adoptive [] Relative/Kinship [] Staff