

Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder

The Advanced Training
presented by Julie Gelo

Julie Gelo is the legal mother of 13 children ranging in age from 8 to 41. She and her husband, Lynn, live in the Bothell, Washington area with their youngest seven children and are licensed foster parents with Ina Maka, a private Foster Care Agency with United Indians of All Tribes Foundation.

Eight of Julie's children have been diagnosed with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome or Related Conditions, including all seven who live at home. Julie is a well known speaker, and has presented workshops and trainings on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and effective advocacy throughout the US and Canada. This training will focus on Parenting children with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder. Training is in collaboration with DSHS, Resource Family Training Institute of Washington State and the Puyallup Tribe.
