Come enjoy a great workshop and a time to connect with other foster parents, adoptive parents, relative care and Social workers

SUCCEEDING WITH THE DIFFICULT CHILD

Presented by: Gary Benton

Gary is a native North Westerner who has been in social work for nearly 30 years. He provides marriage and family therapy, anger management and domestic violence treatment. He is a local and national consultant, trainer and seminar presenter. He provides programs on anger management and domestic violence, as well as dealing with difficult children. Building self-esteem in children, managing change, grief and loss in the work-place, stress reduction, goal setting, and communication skills, as well as team building are only part of what he does. He is fast becoming one of the Training Institutes favorite presenters because of his vast knowledge and delightful presentation style. Come to enjoy and learn!

This workshop will focus on working with difficult, angry, acting out, and defiant children.

The major goals of this workshop will be:
IDENTIFYING THE FACTORS:

- . that lead children to act out.
- . that improve the response of the adult to an acting out child.
- . that prevent or minimize acting out.
- . that help children with ADD/ADHD and more severe disorders.
- . that prevents burnout in adults dealing w/difficult children.
- . that improves participation of parents of acting out children.
- . that improves teamwork among adult and co-workers.

*Foster Parents will be given priority in attending this Workshop; however relative caregivers, social workers, court volunteers, school personnel/day-care providers and others are welcome to register and will be included if there is space available.

NOTE – No Day Care available...please do not bring children. Please call for any special needs accommodations.
